Progress of Popular Liberty. To Donation Visit to Rev. H. J. Eddy.—The Mambers of the Cassant-st. Baptist Church and Congregation finend visiting their Pastor with Donations, at his residence, No. 504, Madison-st., on CHRISTMAS DAY and EVENING. An invitation is affectionately extended to all the Friends of the Church and its Pastor to unite in this testimony of their regard for Mr. EDDY.

The friends of Sabbath Schools are invited to attend the Javenile Missionary Anniversary, to be heldfor Christmas Day at 105 o'clock, in the South Presbyterian Church, corner of Cliaton and Amity-sts., Brooklyn. L. By TOUSLEY, Esq. of Canandaiga, and Rev. D. W. MARSH, of Mosal, may be expected to deliver appropriate addresses.

To Episcopuliuns—CHURCH FAIR.—The La-dies of the Church of St. John Baptist (Rev. CORNELIUS R. DUFFIE, Rector.) have opened a Fair in aid of said Church, in Broadway, west side, two doors above St. Thom-as's Church. The friends of the Church are invited to make their Holiday purchases THIS DAY, THURSDAY or FRI-DAY.

Episcopal Fair.—The Ladies of the Church of St. John Baptist will hold a Fair for the sale of Useful and Fancy Articles, suitable for Holiday Presents, on THURS-DAY and FRIDAY before Christmas, Dec. 22, 23 and 24, at No. 625 Broadway, between Houston and Bleecker-sts.

Ludies? Fair of the Union Congregational Church opens THIS EVENING in Union Hall, No 25 Avenue D. The ladies have received a large number of valuable presents of books and fancy articles, which, together with oysters, ice creams and other refreshments, will be sold at low prices. The proceeds devoted to the Church and benevolent purposes.

The Elm-at. Mission Sunday School will hold its Twelfth Anniversary at the Public School Building in Elm-st., on CHRISTMAS DAY, at 10 o'clock A.M.

To The Ladles of the Rastern Congrega-tional Church, corner of Gouverneur and Madison-sta, will hold a Fair for the sale of Useful and Fancy Articles, on WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY EVEN-INGS of this week.

This Society, which has for its object to provide a comfortable residence for the aged and infirm members of the M. E. Church in this city, having occupied a leased house for the last two years, has now purchased an eligible location for its linstitution in fist-st., near Broadway.

A Fair is now being held at Metropolitan Hall to continue open till SATURDAY EVENING, Dec. 25, 10 P. M., the avails of which will be appropriated to assist in the erection of a suitable building.

Tickets of admission may be obtained at 12 cts. of Mrs. FARR, 459 Broadway, or of the Agents of the M. E. Book Concern, No. 200 Mulberry-st., MARVIN & NORTH, No. 30 William-st., and at the door.

DUSENBERRY, No. 1,097 Broadway, near 324-st, where can be found a splendid assortment of Cake and Confectionery, and also a fine variety of presents for the holiday consisting of fancy French boxes, toys, &c. The Broadway and 49th-st. stages pass the door. The 6th-ay cars also rut close to the establishment, which is situated at the junction of Broadway and 6th-ay. No pains will be spared to render it as attractive as possible to visitors.

it as attractive as possible to visitors.

To the Honorable the Corporation.—The Fetition of the Undersigned, owners of Real Estate in the Eastern Section of the city, respectfully showeth:
That Chatham-st., the great thoroughfare or outlet for the whole castern section of the city is of very unequal width, the portion of it lying west of Center and east of Pearl-sts. being spacious, and the part lying between Pearl and Center being cramped and narrow, so as to measure but 56 feet wide at Puane-st., they would remind your Honorable Body that the street with the present population of the city is very much crowded by the throng of pedestrians and theoroughfare as Broadway, and ought to be of the same width; therefore your petititioners request that your Honorable Body will cause the street to be widened to 80 feet in width, to be taken from its northerly side between Centre and Prantate, also a small strip to be taken from the southerly width, to be taken from the southerly side between Pearl and Rossevelt-sta; the remaining part of the street west of Centre and east of Pearl-sts, will be more than 80 feet in width. And that you will cause the grade of the atreet to be raised in the lowest parts at Pearl and Rossevelt-sta, and to be lowered at Centre-st, and Chatham-square, to make an easy and gentle grade, and to change the name of the street from Broadway to Grand-st, to that of East Broadway.

If we desired to send a gift book to a Christian friend, there is none that would be reference to this, for we know of no unineigned with the highest to give more sincere satisfaction to a religious mind. Each inducted to give more sincere satisfaction to a religious mind. Each inducted to give more sincere satisfaction to a religious mind. Each induction to many houses and hearts, and make the suther a blessing to those who may never hear the sound of his voice.

The name of Dr. Jas. W. Alexander is warrant emergh to believ ing that on these pages the rich thoughts of the Googel have been specadout with their immatton, taste and fervit sea.

It is not a book of exhortstions nor sentimental common places, but a thorough mainly and candid presentation of those deep and solid truths, which are like a rock to the sinking, desponding soul. The stryle in which they are written is beautifully simple, direct and appropriate—a free from meretricions ornamed and sentimentalism as from doctrinal error. They are models of unaffected Empish—affectionate, carnest and candid. They are well adapted to be aloud, to bed up the broken hearted and give to all large, just and most attractive vews at the Googel of our brope.

A ZODIAC. By Charles E. Townsend.

Among numerous recommendations received, are the following from Professor W. C. Bond, of Cambridge, and Horace Webster. LL.D., of the Free Academy of New York.

Havand Orsenvators.

Cambridge, and Horace Webster. LL.D. of the Free Academy of New York.

Havand Orsenvators.

Dear Sir: I thank you for your valuable present of your "Mechanical Zodiace" It is very nicely got up, and it is evident may be used with advantage in schools and in private families in solving problems usually referred to globes, and from motives of economy and convenience might very well be substituted for the more expensive apparatus.

Wishing you the success which your laudable exertions marit, I remain, respectfully yours.

W. E. Bono.

To Charles E. Townsend, Esq., New York.

I have examined Mr. Charles E. Townsend's "Mechanical Zodiac," and think it ingenious, and as accurate as the nature of a graphical construction admits, sufficiently so for all practical purposes.

It appears to me that the instrument referred to is well practical purposes.

It appears to me that the instrument referred to is well practical purposes.

It appears to me that the instrument referred to is well exclusible to be useful to learners, and interesting to all who are fond of cultivating a knowledge of the sublime subject of Astronomy.
